MACON'S BEST STORE

Madam! - Sir!

WITH YOUR HELP

we can get ice to MORE PEOPLE and relieve much of the distress occasioned by this hot weather. The way to help is by being ready to take ice when the wagon calls and seeing that the driver has no excuse for loitering at your door. In so doing you will be rendering a public service.

By the way our coupon books will save you a lot of time and money. You won't have to look for change that has been mislaid. All you have to do is to tear a coupon out of a clean book and give it to the driver. The book also helps you to save on the ice bill. If you are not using it, give the book a trial. Tell our driver to bring you one.

Mr. E. J. Rees, representing the Colonial Mortgage Co., has been in the county several days this week. Mr. Rees' position as inspector for a loan company necessarily makes him a close observer of a country's lands and conditions, and he says he has never in his experience seen such improvement in every respect as there is around Macon in the two years since he was here. He is just from a trip through the reclaimed land section of southeast Louisiana and says he has never seen such crops. Mr. Eiland was born in Perry county, Alabama, in 1834 and was therefore seventy-nine years of age. He came to Noxubee county with his parents in 1847. At the breaking out of the war, he joined the 1st Mississippi Cavalry and has always borne the reputation of having made a splendid soldier. Soon after the war he married Miss Sue Hunter, daughter of the late Jos. Hunter. Besides his wife, who has been his faithful nurse for several years, Mr. Eiland is survived by six children, Messrs. Ovid, Joe and Virgil, Mrs. Jos. Smith, of Midland, Texas, Mrs. Raymond Trimble and Miss Maggie Eiland. Two children died after reaching man and womanhood, Sharkey and Elizabeth.

The remains were interred Sunday morning at ten o'clock in the Odd Fellows cemetery, Rev. Mr. Howse of the Baptist church officiating.

Woman Killed in Brooksville

A negro woman, Lucy Ann, wife of Dove Lindsey was instantly killed by being hit by the engine of passenger train No. 6, at Brooksville this morning at 10:40. The woman carried a lunch basket and an umbrella and it is supposed she held the umbrella so that it hid the train and she did not hear its approach. She lost a child about two months ago and just received a notice that a daughter was ill in Meridian, and it is thought her mind was preoccupied with her troubles. Almost every bone in her body was broken.
